What Could You Do With All The Energy You Waste On The Things That Bug You?

- Learn to use Logosynthesis® — a deceptively simple verbal technique for dissolving reactions to past, present or anticipated stressful situations.
- Reclaim your basic life energy that got stuck in reaction to things that happened to you that you couldn't fully process.
- Learn to identify the triggers to these reactions and retrieve the energy bound up in those stuck experiences.

"We have been helping people make important changes in their lives for over 40 years. The power of this tool to enable us to do the work in a fraction of the time with a fraction of the pain has blown us away." Laurie Weiss, Ph.D.

Logosynthesis® was developed in Switzerland and is spreading throughout Europe and Canada. Jonathan and Laurie Weiss are currently the only Master Certified Logosynthesis practitioners in the United States.

Facilitators: Drs. Jonathan and Laurie Weiss are partners in life and work and are internationally recognized psychotherapists, authors and relationship specialists. The Weisses have been married (to each other) more than 50 years, and have more than 40 years' experience as business partners, coaching people in powerful ways to improve the quality of their relationships.
